I first moved to Arlington in 1969 with my parents. We liked this rural area. It was away from the big cities and Arlington had that small town country charm that we all loved. I can understand growth, but this new development is extreme!

Highway 530, has lots of traffic now, and i would consider the road to be dangerous with so many cars on it everyday. We sure don't need more traffic.

Right now, near Safeway, it really looks like I live in Lynnwood. What a shame. All this building has ruined Arlington.

Please reconsider this new development so we don't ruin all the rural areas of farms and farmland that we have left! We can never ever get it back!

Sincerely,
Patty Garrett
